To Be Held on July 9, 2002

GENERAL INFORMATION

This Proxy Statement and the accompanying proxy are furnished to the shareholders of Rush Enterprises, Inc., a Texas corporation (the "Company" or "Rush"), in connection with the solicitation by the Board of Directors of proxies for use at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders (the "Annual Meeting" or "Meeting") to be held on July 9, 2002, at 10:00 a.m., central time, at the Plaza Club, Frost National Bank Building, 21st Floor, San Antonio, TX 78205, and at any adjournment or postponement thereof, for the purposes set forth in the foregoing Notice of Annual Meeting of Shareholders. Properly executed proxies received in time for the Meeting will be voted.

The securities of the Company entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting consist of shares of common stock, $.01 par value (the "Common Stock"). At the close of business on May 13, 2002 (the "Record Date"), there were outstanding and entitled to vote 7,002,044 shares of Common Stock. The holders of record of Common Stock on the Record Date will be entitled to one vote per share. The Company's Articles of Incorporation do not permit cumulative voting in the election of directors.

The Annual Report to Shareholders for the year ended December 31, 2001, has been or is being furnished with this Proxy Statement, which is being mailed on or about May 15, 2002, to the holders of record of Common Stock on the Record Date. The Annual Report to Shareholders does not constitute a part of the proxy materials.

VOTING AND PROXY PROCEDURES

Properly executed proxies received in time for the Meeting will be voted. Shareholders are urged to specify their choices on the proxy, but if no choice is specified, eligible shares will be voted for the election of the six nominees for director named herein, for the proposed reverse stock split, for the proposed amendments to the Company's Articles of Incorporation and for ratification of the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as the Company's independent public accountants for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2002. At the date of this Proxy Statement, management of the Company knows of no other matters which are likely to be brought before the Annual Meeting. However, if any other matters should properly come before the Annual Meeting, the persons named in the enclosed proxy will have discretionary authority to vote such proxy in accordance with their best judgment on such matters.

If the enclosed form of proxy is executed and returned, it may nevertheless be revoked by a later-dated proxy or by written notice filed with the Secretary at the Company's executive offices at any time before the enclosed proxy is exercised. Shareholders attending the Annual Meeting may revoke their proxies and vote in person. The Company's executive offices are located at 555 IH 35 South, New Braunfels, Texas 78130 and the Company's mailing address is P.O. Box 34630, San Antonio, Texas 78265-4630.

The holders of a majority of the total shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding at the close of business on the Record Date, whether present in person or represented by proxy, will constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the Annual Meeting. The affirmative vote of a plurality of the total shares of Common Stock present in person or represented by proxy and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting is required for the election of directors. The affirmative vote of a majority of the total shares of Common Stock entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting is required for the approval of the proposed reverse stock split and the proposed amendments to the Company's Articles of Incorporation. The affirmative vote of a majority of the total shares of Common Stock present in person or represented by proxy and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting is required for the ratification of the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP and any other matters as may properly come before the Annual Meeting or any adjournment thereof.

Abstentions and any unvoted shares in a brokerage account will count for purposes of establishing a quorum, but will not count as votes cast for the election of directors or any other matter and accordingly will have no effect, except as otherwise provided in this Proxy Statement.

The cost of solicitation of proxies will be paid by the Company. In addition to solicitation by mail, proxies may be solicited by the directors, officers and employees of the Company, without additional compensation (other than reimbursement of out-of-pocket expenses), by personal interview, telephone, telegram or otherwise. Arrangements will also be made with brokerage firms and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries who hold the voting securities of record for the forwarding of solicitation materials to the beneficial owners thereof. The Company will reimburse such brokers, custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred by them in connection therewith.

MATTERS TO COME BEFORE THE ANNUAL MEETING

PROPOSAL 1: ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Six directors (constituting the entire Board) are to be elected at the Annual Meeting. All of the nominees named below are now directors of the Company. All nominees have consented to be named and have indicated their intent to serve if elected.

NAME -----	AGE ---	POSITIONS AND OFFICES WITH THE COMPANY -----	SERVED AS A DIRECTOR SINCE -----
W. Marvin Rush	63	Chairman of the Board, Chief Executive Officer and Director	1965
W. M. "Rusty" Rush	43	President and Director	1996
Robin M. Rush	42	Executive Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer and Director	1996
Ronald J. Krause	74	Director	1996
John D. Rock	66	Director	1997
Harold D. Marshall	66	Director	1999

Biographical information on the nominees is set forth below under "Further Information -- Board of Directors, Executive Officers and Nominees for Board of Directors."

It is the intention of the persons named in the enclosed proxy to vote such proxy for the election of such nominees. Management of the Company does not contemplate that any of such nominees will become unavailable for any reason, but if that should occur before the meeting, proxies that do not withhold authority to vote for directors will be voted for another nominee, or other nominees, in accordance with the best judgment of the person or persons appointed to vote the proxy.

The enclosed form of proxy provides a means for the holders of Common Stock to vote for each of the nominees listed therein, to withhold authority to vote for one or more of such nominees or to withhold authority to vote for all nominees. Each properly executed proxy received in time for the Meeting will be voted as specified therein, or if a shareholder does not specify in his or her executed proxy how the shares represented by his or her proxy are to be voted, such shares shall be voted for the nominees listed therein or for other nominees as provided above. The director nominees receiving a plurality of the votes cast at the Annual Meeting will be elected as directors. Abstentions and broker non-votes will not be treated as a vote for or against any particular director nominee and will not affect the outcome of the election.

COMMITTEES OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The business of the Company is managed under the direction of its Board of Directors. The Company's Board of Directors has established two standing committees: Audit and Compensation.

The Audit Committee recommends the selection of and confers with the Company's independent accountants regarding the scope and adequacy of annual audits, reviews reports from the independent accountants and meets with the independent accountants and with the Company's financial personnel to review the adequacy of the Company's accounting principles, financial controls and policies. The Audit Committee operates pursuant to a charter, a copy of which was attached to the proxy statement for last year's annual meeting of shareholders. The Audit Committee in 2001 consisted of three non-employee directors: Ronald J. Krause, John D. Rock, and Harold D. Marshall. For more information regarding the Audit Committee, see the Audit Committee Report on page 29.

The Compensation Committee reviews the Company's compensation philosophy and programs, exercises authority with respect to the payment of direct salaries and incentive compensation to directors and officers of the Company and administers the Company's Long-Term Incentive Plan (the "Incentive Plan"). The Compensation Committee in 2001 consisted of three non-employee directors: Ronald J. Krause, John D. Rock, and Harold D. Marshall.

MEETINGS OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

During 2001, the Board of Directors met four times. The Compensation Committee met one time during 2001 and the Audit Committee met three times during 2001. Each of the directors of the Company attended at least 75% of the aggregate of the meetings of the Board of Directors and committees of which he was a member.

COMPENSATION OF DIRECTORS

In 1997, the Company adopted and the shareholders approved the 1997 Non-Employee Director Stock Option Plan (the "Plan"). Pursuant to the Plan, each person who is elected or re-elected as a non-employee director receives an option to purchase 10,000 shares of Common Stock as of the date such director is elected or re-elected as a director of the Company, if such election takes place at an annual meeting of shareholders, or as of the date of the first annual meeting of shareholders subsequent to such director's election, if such election does not occur at an annual meeting of shareholders. The aggregate number of shares with respect to which options may be granted under the Plan shall not, in any event, exceed 300,000 shares. Each option is granted at the closing price of the Common Stock as reported by The Nasdaq Stock Market on the date of grant and fully vests on the date of grant.

For fiscal 2001, each non-employee member of the Board of Directors received options pursuant to the terms of the Plan, $1,500 per day in which a director renders services on behalf of the Company, reimbursement for travel expenses to and from the meetings and options to purchase 20,000 shares of the Company's common stock issued outside of any Company plan.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE "FOR" THE ELECTION OF THE INDIVIDUALS NOMINATED FOR ELECTION AS DIRECTORS

PROPOSAL 2. PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO THE COMPANY'S ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION TO EFFECT A REVERSE STOCK SPLIT

GENERAL

The Board of Directors has approved and recommends to the shareholders the adoption of an amendment to Article Four of the Company's Articles of Incorporation to effect a two-for-three share reverse stock split of the Company's common stock (the "Reverse Split"). The approval of the Reverse Split is contingent upon the approval by shareholders of Proposal 3.

The text of Article Four, as proposed to be amended, is attached to this Proxy Statement as EXHIBIT A. The filing of the proposed amendment with the Secretary of State of Texas will effect a two-for-three reverse split of the Company's issued and outstanding common stock and will effect the actions discussed in Proposal 3, assuming shareholder approval of Proposal 3. Three shares of Existing Common Stock (as defined in Proposal 3) will be automatically combined into two shares of Existing Common Stock upon the effectiveness of the Reverse Split.

PURPOSE

The Board of Directors believes that the Reverse Split, if effected, should result in a proportionate increase in the trading price of the Existing Common Stock ($7.65 per share at the close of trading on the National Association of Securities Dealers National Market System ("NASDAQ/NMS") on April 4, 2002). The expected increase in the trading price will reduce the risk that the trading price of the Class A Common Stock (as defined in Proposal 3), assuming approval of Proposal 3, will be below the $5.00 minimum bid price per share which is one of the criteria for initial listing of the Class A Common Stock on the NASDAQ/NMS. In approving the Reverse Split, the Board considered that the Company's common stock may not appeal to brokerage firms that are reluctant to recommend lower priced securities to their clients. Investors may also be dissuaded from purchasing lower priced securities because their brokerage commissions, as a percentage of the total transaction, tend to be higher for such stocks. An increase in the per share price of the Company's common stock may enhance the acceptability of the common stock to the financial community and the investing public and potentially broaden the investor pool from which the Company may be able to obtain financing. In addition, the higher trading price might avoid the Company's common stock being considered a "penny stock" under certain SEC regulations which govern trading in low priced securities.

POTENTIAL DISADVANTAGES TO THE REVERSE STOCK SPLIT

REDUCED MARKET CAPITALIZATION. Theoretically, the overall value of the Company will not change as a result of the Reverse Split since reducing the number of shares outstanding would result in a proportionate increase in the per share price. However, a reverse stock split is often viewed negatively by the market and, consequently, can lead to a decrease in the overall market capitalization of the Company. As a result, there is no mathematical certainty as to the increase in the price per share that might be expected as result of the Reverse Split, and there can be no assurance that the per share price will increase proportionately to the Reverse Split. If the per share price does not increase proportionately, then the overall market capitalization of the Company (its total market value) will be reduced.

INCREASED VOLATILITY. The Reverse Split will reduce the number of outstanding shares of Existing Common Stock to approximately 4,668,029 shares. This reduced number of shares could result in decreased liquidity in the trading market and potential mismatches between supply and demand in the market for the Existing Common Stock at any given time, which could result in changes in the trading price unrelated to the activities or prospects of the Company.

INCREASED TRANSACTION COSTS. The number of shares of Existing Common Stock held by each individual shareholder will be reduced if the Reverse Split is approved. This will increase the number of shareholders who hold less than a "round lot," or 100 shares. Typically, the transaction costs to shareholders selling "odd lots" are higher on a per share basis. Consequently, the Reverse Split could increase the transactions costs to existing shareholders in the event they wish to sell all or a portion of their position.

AUTHORIZED SHARES, FUTURE FINANCING. Upon effectiveness of the Reverse Split and assuming approval of Proposal 3, the number of authorized shares of Common Stock that are not issued or outstanding would increase from approximately 18,000,000 shares to approximately 40,700,000 shares. We will continue to have 1,000,000 authorized but unissued shares of Preferred Stock. Authorized but unissued shares will be available for issuance, and we may issue such shares in financings or otherwise. If the Company issues additional shares, the ownership interest of holders of Common Stock may also be diluted. Also, the issued shares may have rights, preferences or privileges senior to those of the Common Stock.

BOARD DISCRETION TO IMPLEMENT THE REVERSE STOCK SPLIT

If the shareholders at the Annual Meeting approve the Reverse Split, the Reverse Split will be effected only upon a determination by the Board of Directors that such Reverse Split is still in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders. Such determination shall be based upon certain factors, including, but not limited to, the current market conditions, existing and expected trading prices of the Class A Common Stock, assuming the approval of Proposal 3, and the likely effect of business developments on the market price of the Class A Common Stock. Notwithstanding approval of the Reverse Split by the shareholders, the Board of Directors may, in its sole discretion, determine not to implement the Reverse Split.

PROCEDURE FOR REVERSE SPLIT

If the Company's shareholders approve the Reverse Split and Proposal 3 and the Board believes that the Reverse Split is in the best interest of the Company and its shareholders, the Company will file Articles of Amendment with the Secretary of State of the State of Texas. Thereafter, (i) three shares of Existing Common Stock, outstanding on the date the Articles of Amendment effecting the Reverse Split are filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Texas (the "Effective Date") will automatically and without any further action by the holder be converted into two shares of Existing Common Stock. No shareholder, will, as a result of the Reverse Split, receive any fractional shares of Existing Common Stock. Any holder of Existing Common Stock who would otherwise be entitled to receive a fractional share of Existing Common Stock shall be entitled to receive a cash payment in lieu thereof equal to the product of (i) such fraction multiplied by (ii) the average of the closing bid and asked prices of a share of Existing Common Stock as reported by the NASDAQ/NMS or the principal trading market of the Existing Common Stock on the Effective Date.

Shareholders may be asked to surrender certificates representing their shares of Existing Common Stock in exchange for new certificates reflecting the effects of the Reverse Split.

NO DISSENTER'S RIGHTS

The Company's shareholders are not entitled to dissenter's rights with respect to the Reverse Split under Texas law or under the Company's Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws, and the Company will not independently provide shareholders with any such right.

FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE REVERSE SPLIT

The following is a summary of certain material federal income tax consequences of the Reverse Split and does not purport to be a complete discussion of all of the possible federal income tax consequences of the Reverse Split and is included for general information only. Further, it does not address any state, local or foreign income or other tax consequences. For example, the state and local tax consequences of the Reverse Split may vary significantly as to each shareholder, depending upon the state in which he or she resides. Also, it does not address the tax consequences to holders that are subject to special tax rules, such as banks, insurance companies, regulated investment companies, personal holding companies, foreign entities, nonresident alien individuals, broker-dealers and tax-exempt entities. The discussion is based on the provisions of the United States federal income tax law as of the date hereof, which is subject to change retroactively as well as prospectively. This summary also assumes that the shares of Existing Common Stock are and will be held as a "capital asset," as defined in the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code") (i.e., generally, property held for investment). The tax treatment of a shareholder may vary depending upon the particular facts and circumstances of such shareholder. Each shareholder is urged to consult with such shareholder's own tax advisor with respect to the tax consequences of the Reverse Split.

Other than the cash payments for fractional shares discussed below, no gain or loss should be recognized by a shareholder in connection with the Reverse Split. The aggregate tax basis of the shares resulting from the Reverse Split (including any fraction of a share deemed to have been received) will be the same as the shareholder's aggregate tax basis in the shares held at the Effective Time of the Reverse Split. In general, shareholders who receive cash upon redemption of their fractional share interests in the shares as a result of the Reverse Split will recognize gain or loss based on their adjusted basis in the fractional share interests redeemed. The federal income tax liability, if any, generated by the receipt of cash in lieu of a fractional interest should not be material in amount in view of the low value of the fractional interest. The shareholder's holding period for the shares resulting from the Reverse Split will include the period during which the shareholder held the shares combined in the Reverse Split.

The Company's view regarding the tax consequences of the Reverse Split is not binding on the Internal Revenue Service or the courts. Accordingly, each shareholder should consult with his or her own tax advisor with respect to all of the potential tax consequences to him or her of the Reverse Split.

VOTE REQUIRED

Approval of the amendment to the Company's Articles of Incorporation to effect the Reverse Split requires the approval of Proposal 3 and the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares of Existing Common Stock entitled to vote thereon. If not otherwise indicated, proxies will be voted "FOR" approval of the amendment and the Reverse Split. Abstentions and broker non-votes will not be treated as either a vote for or against approval of the amendment or Reverse Split. However, because the approval of the amendment requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of Existing Common Stock, abstentions and broker non-votes will have the same effect as a vote against approval of the amendment and the Reverse Split.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS THAT THE SHAREHOLDERS VOTE "FOR" THE AMENDMENT TO THE COMPANY'S ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION TO EFFECT A REVERSE STOCK SPLIT OF THE EXISTING COMMON STOCK.

PROPOSAL 3. PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO THE COMPANY'S ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

GENERAL DESCRIPTION

The Board of Directors has approved and recommends to the shareholders the adoption of an amendment to Article Four of the Company's Articles of Incorporation (the "Proposed Amendment" or "Proposal"). The amended Article Four would (i) increase the number of shares of all classes of stock that the Company is authorized to issue from 26,000,000 to 51,000,000, (ii) reclassify the existing common stock of the Company (the "Existing Common Stock") as Class B Common Stock (the "Class B Common Stock"), (iii) authorize a new class of 40,000,000 shares to be designated Class A Common Stock (the "Class A Common Stock"), and (iv) establish the express terms of the Class A Common Stock and the Class B Common Stock. The text of Article Four, as proposed to be amended, is attached as EXHIBIT A. The summary of the amended Article Four contained herein should be read in conjunction with, and is qualified in its entirety by reference to, the full text of the proposed Article Four set forth as EXHIBIT A.

Each share of Class A Common Stock would rank substantially equal to each share of Class B Common Stock with respect to receipt of any dividends or distributions declared on shares of common stock and the right to receive proceeds on liquidation or dissolution of the Company after payment of the Company's indebtedness and liquidation preference payments to holders of preferred shares. However, holders of Class A Common Stock will have 1/20th of one vote per share on all matters requiring a shareholder vote, while holders of Class B Common Stock will retain their full vote per share.

If the Proposed Amendment is approved by the shareholders, the Board of Directors intends to prepare and file a certificate to that effect with the Secretary of State of Texas. The Existing Common Stock (after giving effect to the proposed Reverse Split) would be reclassified as Class B Common Stock. In addition, the Company has declared, subject to shareholder approval of Proposal 2 and the Proposed Amendment, a stock dividend (the "Dividend") of one share of Class A Common Stock for each share of Class B Common Stock outstanding on the record date for the Dividend. The record date for the Dividend will be the date of the Annual Meeting of Shareholders.

Shareholders should retain their current share certificates because, upon reclassification, those certificates then would represent Class B Common Stock without any need for exchange. At the time of the Dividend, new certificates would be issued for Class A Common Stock only.

Upon reclassification, the Class B Common Stock would continue to have its express terms. As more fully described below, the new Class A Common Stock would have certain characteristics as compared to the Class B Common Stock, of which the most significant is the reduction of voting power to 1/20th of a vote per share of Class A Common Stock. There would be no change in the relative voting power or equity of any shareholder of the Company as a result of the Dividend because the Dividend would be made to all shareholders in proportion to the number of shares of Existing Common Stock owned by them on the record date for the Dividend.

The Proposal may have the effect of discouraging or creating an additional barrier to a hostile takeover of the Company or ouster of the Company's management. See "Certain Potential Disadvantages of the Proposal - Antitakeover Effect."

BACKGROUND AND REASONS FOR THE PROPOSAL

W. Marvin Rush, the Company's Chief Executive Officer and Chairman of the Board of Directors, W.M. "Rusty" Rusty, W. Marvin Rush's son and the Company's President, Chief Operating Officer and a director, and Robin M. Rush, W. Marvin Rush's son and the Company's Executive Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer and a director, have in the aggregate sole or shared voting power of approximately 38% of the total voting shares of the Company by reason of their personal ownerships of voting securities of the Company and their sole or shared voting power as fiduciaries with respect to other shares. The total beneficial stock ownership of W. Marvin Rush, W.M. "Rusty" Rush and Robin M. Rush and members of their families is set forth above. See "Ownership of Common Stock - Security Ownership of Principal Shareholders and Management."

For ease of reference, this discussion of the Proposal will refer from time to time to the stock ownership or voting power of the "Rush Family," which phrase includes certain (i) persons and entities identified in the table, including footnotes to the table, set forth under "Security Ownership of Principal Shareholders and Management" as having family relationships to Mr. W. Marvin Rush and (ii) entities which are shareholders of the Company and with respect to which Mr. W. Marvin Rush serves as a fiduciary and holds sole or shared voting power of shares of the Company owned by such entities. Reference herein to the Rush Family is not intended to designate the family members as a "group" for the purpose of acquiring, holding or disposing of securities of the Company.

The Company's Board of Directors believes that a capital structure having two classes of common stock offers a number of potential benefits, as described below, and that adoption of the Proposal is in the best interests of the Company and all of its shareholders.

MAINTAIN DEALERSHIP AGREEMENTS WITH PACCAR AND JOHN DEERE. The Company's principal division, the Rush Truck Center Division, operates a regional network of 35 truck locations in Texas, California, Oklahoma, Colorado, Louisiana, Arizona and New Mexico, that provide an integrated one-stop source for the trucking needs of its customers, including retail sales of new Peterbilt trucks manufactured by PACCAR, Inc. ("PACCAR") and used heavy-duty trucks manufactured by PACCAR and others; after-market parts, service and body shop facilities; and a wide array of financial services, including the financing of new and used truck purchases, insurance products and truck leasing and rentals. The Company is the largest Peterbilt truck dealer in North America, representing approximately 21.7% of all domestic heavy-duty new Peterbilt truck sales in 2001. The Company was named Peterbilt Dealer of the Year for North America for the 1993-1994 and 2000-2001 years.

The Company also operates six Rush Equipment Centers located in Texas and Michigan. The Company provides a full line of construction equipment primarily manufactured by John Deere Construction Equipment Company ("John Deere") for light to medium sized applications, with the primary products including backhoe loaders, hydraulic excavators, crawler dozers and four wheel drive loaders. Dealership operations include the retail sale of new and used construction equipment, after-market parts and service facilities, equipment rentals, and the financing of new and used construction equipment.

During 2000 and 2001, the Rush Truck Center and Rush Equipment segments together accounted for approximately $858 million and $736 million, respectively, or approximately 96% and 94%, respectively, of the Company's total revenues, and are expected to account for a similar portion of the Company's annual revenues in 2002.

PACCAR has granted the Company the right to act as the sole authorized vendor for new Peterbilt trucks and replacement parts in its market areas pursuant to dealership agreements (the "PACCAR Dealership Agreements"). The PACCAR Dealership Agreements are terminable by PACCAR upon a change of control of the Company, which, under such agreements, would occur in the event the voting power of the Rush Family with respect to the election of directors becomes less than 30 percent.

The Company has also entered into non-exclusive dealership agreements with John Deere authorizing the Company to act as a dealer of John Deere construction, utility and forestry equipment, which contain termination provisions that would similarly be triggered if the Rush Family's voting power decreased below 25%. As of March 15, 2002, the Rush Family beneficially owned in the aggregate 2,829,952 shares of Common Stock, or approximately 38% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock.

The Company believes its future growth depends on its ability to make acquisitions and expand its product offerings. As of March 15, 2002, the Company had the ability to issue only 1,833,986 shares of Common Stock prior to triggering the change of control provisions of the PACCAR Dealership Agreements. The number of shares that could be issued would be further reduced in the event of future sales of Existing Common Stock by the Rush Family or additional grants of stock options to employees of the Company. In order to fund future growth, the Company would prefer to have the ability to issue additional Common Stock either directly to fund acquisitions or indirectly to raise capital to fund acquisitions. As a result of the change of control restrictions imposed under its dealership arrangements with PACCAR and John Deere, the Company is effectively precluded from issuing a sufficient number of additional shares of its Common Stock under its current capital structure, and thus its continued growth is significantly impaired. Both PACCAR and John Deere have refused repeatedly to waive or otherwise amend the onerous change of control restrictions. The implementation of the Proposal would remove this impediment to the Company's growth, while preserving the Company's sole source of existence - its dealership relationships with PACCAR and John Deere.

FINANCING FLEXIBILITY. Implementation of the Proposal would provide the Company with increased flexibility in the future to issue common equity or to issue senior equity securities convertible into common equity to reduce the Company's outstanding debt or for other corporate purposes, including financing acquisitions and other future growth and funding of employee benefit stock plans without diluting the voting power of the Company's existing shareholders, including the Rush Family and without causing a default under the dealership agreements with PACCAR and John Deere. Implementation of the Proposal, and assuming the approval of Proposal 2, exclusive of the dilutive effect of options, would give the Company the ability to issue approximately 30,000,000 additional shares of its Class A common equity before risking default under the PACCAR Dealership Agreements.

If the Company were to engage in any such financing, it is more likely to offer Class A Common Stock. The Company does not now have under consideration any other proposals for issuance of any class of common stock.

SHAREHOLDER FLEXIBILITY. The Proposal would protect shareholders, including the Rush Family, against dilution of their relative voting power in the event of future issuances of equity securities by the Company as the Company currently intends that the Class B Common Stock ordinarily will not be used for such purposes. However, the Company intends that all future options issued to the Rush Family will be to purchase Class B Common Stock and all future issuances of options to non-Rush Family members will be to purchase Class A Common Stock. There can be no assurance that the Company will not issue additional Class B Common Stock where such issuance may be necessary or appropriate to accomplish a particular objective.

In addition, present shareholders would have increased flexibility to dispose of a portion of their equity interest in the Company without substantially diminishing their relative voting power. Under the Proposal, such shareholders could sell or otherwise dispose of a significant portion of their equity interest in the Company by disposing of Class A Common Stock and retaining Class B Common Stock. Disposition of Class A Common Stock would result in a loss of voting power equal to only 5% of the loss of voting power which would result from the disposition of the same number of shares of Class B Common Stock. The Company is not aware of any present intention by members of the Rush Family to dispose of any portion of their equity interests in the Company. However, if in time some members of the Rush Family elect to dispose of some of their shares for diversification, liquidity and estate planning reasons, the Company believes that, if the Proposal is approved, they would be more likely to dispose of shares of Class A Common Stock rather than shares of Class B Common Stock.

CONTINUITY. Because implementation of the Proposal would allow the Rush Family to continue to exercise control over a significant percentage of the Company's voting power even if their total equity position is significantly reduced, the adoption of the Proposal would reduce the risk of a disruption in the continuity of the Company's long-term plans and objectives that could otherwise result if members of the Rush Family should find it necessary to sell a significant block of equity stock for diversification, payment of estate tax obligations or other reasons. Implementation of the Proposal will allow management to focus its attention and the Company's resources on maximizing long-term corporate growth and profitability without concern for the possibility of an unexpected or unwanted change in control of the Company.

BUSINESS RELATIONSHIPS. As stated above, the Company's dealership agreements with PACCAR and John Deere contain provisions which could permit PACCAR and John Deere to declare the Company in default and terminate the dealership agreements if certain events were to occur which constituted a "change of control" under the provisions of those agreements. Adoption of the Proposal should decrease the risk of any such change of control and may reassure any of the Company's other customers, suppliers, licensors or lenders who may have concerns about the possibility of a change of control if the voting power of the Rush Family were substantially diluted.

KEY EMPLOYEES. The Proposal should allow all employees to continue to concentrate on their responsibilities without undue concern that the future of the Company could be affected by real or perceived succession of ownership issues or an unwanted takeover or a default under the dealership agreements with PACCAR and John Deere that could otherwise be triggered by any substantial divestiture by the Rush Family in the future. In addition, as discussed above, the ability to issue Class A Common Stock would increase the Company's flexibility in structuring compensation so that key employees may participate in the growth of the Company.

If the Proposal and Proposal 2 are approved, the Company believes that the Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock will be eligible for listing on NASDAQ/NMS assuming compliance with all qualification requirements of NASDAQ/NMS. See "Certain Effects of the Proposal - NASDAQ/NMS Requirements".

Management framed the features of the Proposal after consulting with legal and financial advisers and considering various alternatives to accomplish the Company's objectives. At its regular meeting on February 23, 2002, the Board of Directors of the Company discussed generally with management the features of the Proposal and other possible actions that had been considered by management in arriving at the Proposal.

DESCRIPTION OF CLASS A COMMON STOCK AND CLASS B COMMON STOCK

The express terms of the Class A Common Stock and the Class B Common Stock are set forth in full in Article Four of the Proposed Amendment. The text of Article Four, as proposed to be amended, is attached as EXHIBIT A to this proxy statement and incorporated herein by reference. The following summary should be read in conjunction with, and is qualified in its entirety by reference to EXHIBIT A.

VOTING. Under the Company's current Articles of Incorporation, the holders of Existing Common Stock have the right to vote for the election of all directors and on all other matters submitted to the shareholders of the Company. Each holder is entitled to cast one full vote per share. Cumulative voting is not authorized.

Each share of Class B Common Stock would continue to entitle the holder thereof to one full vote on all matters on which shareholders currently are entitled to vote, including the election of directors. Each share of Class A Common Stock would entitle the holder thereof to one-twentieth (1/20th) of one vote on all other matters on which shareholders are entitled to vote, including the election of directors. The Proposal would result in the reclassification of the Existing Common Stock into Class B Common Stock but would not affect the relative voting power of the holders of the Existing Common Stock.

DIVIDENDS AND OTHER DISTRIBUTIONS. Each share of Class A Common Stock and of Class B Common Stock will be equal in respect to dividends and other distributions in cash, stock or property except that (i) if declared, a dividend or distribution in shares of the Company on Class A Common Stock will be paid in Class A Common Stock, and (ii) if declared, a dividend or distribution in shares of the Company on Class B Common Stock will be paid in Class B Common Stock. The number of shares so paid as a dividend or distribution on each share of Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock shall be equal, although the class of the shares so paid shall differ depending upon whether the recipient of the dividend is a holder of a share of Class A Common Stock or Class B Common Stock.

MERGERS AND CONSOLIDATIONS. In the event of a merger, consolidation, or combination of the Company with another entity (whether or not the Company is the surviving entity) or in the event of dissolution of the Company, the holders of Class A Common Stock will be entitled to receive the same per share consideration as the per share consideration, if any, received by holders of Class B Common Stock in that transaction. However, any shares of common stock that holders of Class A Common Stock become entitled to receive in the transaction may have terms substantially similar to the Class A Common Stock themselves. Thus the surviving entity in any such transaction could have a dual-class capital structure like that of the Company under the Proposed Amendment and could, upon consummation of the merger or consolidation, give full voting shares to the holders of Class B Common Stock and 1/20th voting shares to the holders of Class A Common Stock.

CONVERTIBILITY. The Class B Common Stock will be convertible into Class A Common Stock at any time on a share-for-share basis. The Class A Common Stock will not be convertible into shares of Class B Common Stock.

PREEMPTIVE RIGHTS. Neither the Class A Common Stock nor the Class B Common Stock will carry any preemptive rights enabling a holder to subscribe for or receive shares of the Company of any class or any other securities convertible into any class of the Company's shares.

TRANSFERABILITY; TRADING MARKET. Like the Existing Common Stock, the Class A Common Stock and the Class B Common Stock will be freely transferable. The Company is filing applications with the NASDAQ/NMS with respect to both the Class A Common Stock and the Class B Common Stock and it is expected that both such classes will be listed for trading on the NASDAQ/NMS.

INCREASE IN AUTHORIZED COMMON STOCK. If approved, the Proposed Amendment will increase the Company's authorized common stock from 25,000,000 shares of Existing Common Stock to 40,000,000 shares of Class A Common Stock and 10,000,000 shares of Class B Common Stock. Immediately after implementation of the Proposal, assuming the approval of Proposal 2, approximately 4,668,029 million shares of Class A Common Stock and 4,668,029 million shares of Class B Common Stock will be issued and outstanding. An additional 955,461 shares of Class A Common Stock and 955,461 shares of Class B Common Stock will be reserved for issuance in the event of exercise of the Company's outstanding options and warrants, as to which an equal number of shares of Existing Common Stock are currently reserved. Accordingly, approximately 34,400,000 shares of Class A Common Stock and 4,400,000 shares of Class B Common Stock will be available for issuance in the future for any proper corporate purpose, including, public or private sale, acquisitions, employee incentive plans and stock dividends. Generally, those issuances may be authorized by the Board of Directors without shareholder approval, except that the rules of NASDAQ/NMS applicable to companies listed thereon ordinarily require shareholder approval of a stock issuance transaction other than a public offering for cash if, among other things, the number of shares to be issued is or will be 20% or more of common stock outstanding before the issuance.

The Company currently intends to issue Class A Common Stock rather than Class B Common Stock for future corporate purposes, such as equity financing, acquisitions and employee benefit stock plans. The Company has no current understandings or agreements with respect to any such financings, acquisitions or benefit plans. The Company does not have any current plans to issue any additional shares of Class B Common Stock other than shares of Class B Common Stock to be issued to members of the Rush Family upon exercise of options.

SHAREHOLDER INFORMATION. The Company will deliver to holders of Class A Common Stock the same proxy statements, annual reports and other information and reports as it will deliver to holders of Class B Common Stock. The Company does not propose to change its present practices with respect to issuance of reports and information to shareholders.

CERTAIN EFFECTS OF THE PROPOSAL

EFFECTS ON RELATIVE OWNERSHIP INTEREST AND VOTING POWER. The relative ownership interest and voting power of each holder of Existing Common Stock would be the same immediately after effectiveness of the Proposed Amendment and the Dividend as it was immediately prior thereto. The Proposed Amendment provides that each share of Existing Common Stock will be reclassified and changed into one share of Class B Common Stock, and the Dividend of one share of Class A Common Stock will be made to all shareholders in proportion to the number of shares of Class B Common Stock owned on the record date for the Dividend by each shareholder.

Under the Proposal, shareholders who sell Class B Common Stock after the Dividend will lose a greater amount of voting control in proportion to their common stock equity than they would have had prior to the Dividend. Conversely, shareholders who sell shares of Class A Common Stock after the Dividend will retain a greater amount of voting control in proportion to equity.

EFFECT ON MARKET PRICE. The market price of Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock after the Dividend will depend, as before the adoption of the Proposed Amendment, on many factors including, among others, the future performance of the Company, general market conditions, and conditions relating to other companies in the retail truck and equipment industry. Accordingly, the Company cannot predict the prices at which the Class A Common Stock and the Class B Common Stock will trade following the adoption of the Proposed Amendment and the Dividend, just as the Company could not predict the prices at which the Existing Common Stock would trade absent the Proposal and the Dividend.

Under certain circumstances the Class B Common Stock could trade at a premium compared to the Class A Common Stock. The Proposed Amendment expressly permits the Board to authorize the purchase of shares of any one class or any combination of classes without regard to differences among them in price and other terms under which such shares may be purchased. Thus, the Board could authorize the Company to purchase Class B Common Stock even if the consideration which would be paid by purchasing Class A Common Stock would be less.

EFFECT OF CLASS B VOTING REQUIREMENT FOR CERTAIN TRANSACTIONS. Under the Proposed Amendment, the holders of the Class B Common Stock will receive the same consideration per share as the holders of Class A Common Stock in the event of liquidation or dissolution of the Company. This provision of the Proposed Amendment would not prevent a holder of a significant amount of the Existing Common Stock, such as certain members of the Rush Family, from selling their shareholdings (including all their Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock) in the Company for a premium to a buyer who intends to operate the Company following such purchase without acquiring the remaining equity in the Company.

EFFECT ON TRADING MARKET. As of the date of this Proxy Statement, 7,002,044 shares of Existing Common Stock are issued and outstanding. Implementation of the Proposal will result in no change in the number of shares of Existing Common Stock (redesignated Class B Common Stock) outstanding and will immediately create an equal number of shares of Class A Common Stock; provided however, implementation of the Reverse Split in Proposal 2, will result in two-thirds the number of shares of Existing Common Stock redesignated Class B Common Stock outstanding which will be equal to the number of shares of Class A Common Stock created.

The Company currently intends that in the future it will issue Class A Common Stock rather than Class B Common Stock in any sale of common stock to the public or in any use of common stock for acquisitions or employee benefit stock plans. Moreover, the Company expects that if members of the Rush Family sell any shares in the future (the Company knows of no current plan to do so), it is more likely that they will sell shares of Class A Common Stock than shares of Class B Common Stock due to the change of control provisions of the dealership agreements with PACCAR and John Deere. Any such issuances of additional shares of Class A Common Stock by the Company or sales of shares of Class A Common Stock by the Rush Family or other major shareholders may serve to further increase market activity in the Class A Common Stock relative to the Class B Common Stock.

EFFECT ON BOOK VALUE AND EARNINGS PER SHARE. Although the interest of each shareholder in the total equity of the Company will remain unchanged as a result of the Dividend, the issuance of the Class A Common Stock pursuant to the Dividend will cause the book value and earnings per share of the Company to be adjusted to reflect the increased number of shares outstanding. Although effected in the form of a dividend, for accounting purposes the Dividend will have the same effect as a two-for-one stock split.

EFFECT ON RETAINED EARNINGS AND CAPITAL STOCK ACCOUNTS. Although the interest of each shareholder in the total equity of the Company will remain unchanged, the Dividend of the Class A Common Stock on a share-for-share basis for each share of Class B Common Stock outstanding will be accounted for as a stock dividend. Consequently, the Stockholders' Equity Account of the Company will be adjusted to increase the Common Stock account by $70,020, the total par value of the Class A Common Stock to be issued in the Dividend, and to decrease retained earnings by an equal amount. If the Dividend had occurred as at February 28, 2002, the Dividend would have resulted in a total Common Stock account of $140,040 as compared to $70,020 without the Dividend, and the retained earnings of the Company would have been $42,043,835 as compared to $42,113,855 without the Dividend.

FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES. The following description of certain federal income tax consequences concerning the Proposal is based upon current provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), applicable Treasury Regulations, and judicial and administrative interpretations thereof. This description does not, however, address any aspects of state, local or foreign taxation relating to the Proposal.

The Company believes that, in general, for federal income tax purposes (i) neither the reclassification of Existing Common Stock into Class B Common Stock nor the Dividend of Class A Common Stock will be taxable to a shareholder of the Company, (ii) neither the Class B Common Stock nor the Class A Common Stock will constitute "Section 306 stock" within the meaning of Section 306(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, (iii) the cost basis of each share of Existing Common Stock will be apportioned between the share of Class B Common Stock into which it is reclassified and the Class A Common Stock issued with regard to it in proportion to the fair market value of the shares of each class on the date of the Dividend, and (iv) the holding period for each share of Class B Common Stock and Class A Common Stock will include the shareholder's holding period for the Existing Common Stock with respect to which they were distributed. Gain or loss will be recognized, however, on the subsequent sale of a share of Class B Common Stock and a share of Class A Common Stock. Shareholders are urged to seek the advice of their own tax counsel on this matter and on state or foreign income tax matters.

SECURITIES ACT OF 1933. The Company is not required to register and has not registered under the Securities Act of 1933 the issuance of Class B Common Stock upon reclassification of the Existing Common Stock or the issuance of the Class A Common Stock in the Dividend. To the extent that any shareholder holds any Existing Common Stock as restricted securities under Rule 144 under the Securities Act of 1933, both the Class B Common Stock issued upon the reclassification of the Existing Common Stock and the Class A Common Stock issued in the Dividend will be restricted securities. Any affiliate of the Company under Rule 144 will be subject to the same restrictions in disposing of Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock as the affiliate presently is with respect to the Existing Common Stock.

NASDAQ/NMS REQUIREMENTS. The Existing Common Stock currently is traded on NASDAQ/NMS, and application is being made to trade the Class A Common Stock and the Class B Common Stock on NASDAQ/NMS as well. The Proposal is intended to comply with the requirements of Rule 4351 of the National Association of Securities Dealers, which provides that the voting rights of existing shareholders of publicly traded stock registered under Section 12 of the Securities Act of 1934 cannot be disparately reduced or restricted through any corporate action or issuance. The Company believes that (1) the issuance of the Class A Common Stock would not violate the NASDAQ/NMS voting rights policy, (2) assuming the approval of Proposal 2, on issuance, the Class A Common Stock as well as the Class B Common Stock, will be eligible for listing on NASDAQ/NMS, subject to all other applicable rules of listing and (3) future issuances of either Class A Common Stock or Class B Common Stock, subject to all applicable rules of listing, will not impair continued eligibility for listing.

SUBSEQUENT AMENDMENTS. Implementation of the Proposal will not prevent the Company from taking any action, or otherwise affect the Company's ability to adopt any future amendments to the Articles of Incorporation for the purpose of further changing the Company's capital structure or for any other lawful purpose subject to the appropriate approval of the Company's Board of Directors and shareholders and any listing requirements of any market or exchange on which the Company's common stock is traded.

CERTAIN POTENTIAL DISADVANTAGES OF THE PROPOSAL

While the Board of Directors has determined that implementation of the Proposal is in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders, the Board recognizes that it may result in certain disadvantages, including the following:

ANTITAKEOVER EFFECT. Currently, in the opinion of the Board of Directors, no person could succeed in a takeover of the Company without making an offer acceptable to members of the Rush Family, because of their substantial ownership of voting stock. Implementation of the Proposal will not materially change the voting power of the Rush Family, but it will give the Company more flexibility to issue common stock without substantial diminution of the voting power of the existing shareholders, including the Rush Family, and it will give the Rush Family ability to reduce their equity holdings in the Company (by sale of Class A Common Stock) without materially reducing their voting power. See "Reasons for the Proposal; Recommendation of the Board of Directors."

BROKERAGE COSTS; SECURITY FOR CREDIT. As is typical in connection with any stock split, brokerage charges and stock transfer taxes, if any, may be somewhat higher with respect to purchases and sales of the Company's common stock after the Dividend, assuming transactions in the same dollar amount, because of the increased number of shares involved.

The Company does not expect that the adoption of the Proposed Amendment and the Dividend will affect the ability of shareholders to use either the Class A Common Stock or the Class B Common Stock as security for the extension of credit by financial institutions, securities, brokers, or dealers.

INVESTMENT BY INSTITUTIONS. Implementation of the Proposal may affect the decision of certain institutional investors that would otherwise consider investing in the Existing Common Stock but who object to the issuance of shares with disproportionately reduced voting power.

INTERESTS OF CERTAIN PERSONS IN THE PROPOSAL

As noted elsewhere in this proxy statement, members of the Rush Family hold approximately 38% of the voting power of the Company. See "Background of the Proposal." That percentage will not be affected by the Proposal or the Dividend. Members of the Rush Family, however, could sell some or all of the Class A Common Stock received by them in the Dividend without any material reduction in their voting power, assuming no other events occur that would affect voting power. Consequently, they have an interest in implementation of the Proposal. Management is not aware of any present intention on the part of any member of the Rush Family to dispose of common stock.

Of the six current members of the Board of Directors, three are members of the Rush Family. The remaining three members are neither members of the Rush Family nor employees of the Company. The Board of Directors suggests that each shareholder carefully read and review in detail the portions of this proxy statement describing the Proposal and the Dividend and discussing certain effects thereof.

VOTE REQUIRED AND RECOMMENDATION OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The approval of Proposal 2 and the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of the Existing Common Stock entitled to vote thereon are required for adoption of the Proposal. The Board of Directors unanimously recommends that the shareholders vote FOR the Proposal and the adoption of the Proposed Amendment. After discussions among the Directors concerning the Proposal, the Board of Directors, including the Company's independent outside directors, unanimously determined to recommend that the shareholders approve of the Proposed Amendment. In connection with its adoption of the Proposed Amendment, the Board also (i) authorized the filing of definitive proxy materials relating to the Proposal with the Securities and Exchange Commission, and (ii) declared the dividend in Class A Common Stock, subject to shareholder approval of the Proposed Amendment and Proposal 2, setting July 9, 2002, the date of the Annual Meeting of Shareholders, as the record date for such dividend. If not otherwise indicated, proxies will be voted "FOR" approval of the Proposal. Abstentions and broker non-votes will not be treated as either a vote for or against approval of the Proposal. However, because the approval of the Proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of the Existing Common Stock, abstentions and broker non-votes will have the same effect as a vote against approval of the Proposal.

PROPOSAL 4: RATIFICATION OF APPOINTMENT OF INDEPENDENT PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

The firm of Arthur Andersen LLP, independent certified public accountants, served as the Company's independent accountants for the year ended December 31, 2001. On April 1, 2002 the Board of Directors, upon recommendation of its Audit Committee, dismissed Arthur Andersen LLP ("AA") as the Company's independent accountants and appointed the firm of Ernst & Young LLP ("E&Y") to serve as independent public accountants of the Company for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2002. Although shareholder ratification is not required, the Board of Directors has directed that such appointment be submitted to the shareholders of the Company for ratification at the Annual Meeting. Ernst & Young LLP is considered by management of the Company to be well qualified. If the shareholders do not ratify the appointment of E&Y, the Board of Directors may reconsider the appointment. Even if the selection is ratified, the Board of Directors and the Audit Committee in their discretion may change the appointment at any time during the year if they determine that the change would be in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders.

Representatives of E&Y and AA are expected to be present at the Annual Meeting. They will have an opportunity to make a statement if they desire to do so and will be available to respond to appropriate questions from shareholders.

Assuming the presence of a quorum, ratification of the appointment of E&Y requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast by the holders of shares of Common Stock entitled to vote in person or by proxy at the Annual Meeting. Abstentions and broker non-votes will not be considered as a vote for or against the proposal and therefore will have no effect on the outcome of the proposal. Proxies will be voted for or against such approval in accordance with specifications marked thereon, and if no specification is made, the proxies will be voted for such approval.

Arthur Andersen's reports on the Company's consolidated financial statements for each of the years ended 2001 and 2000 did not contain an adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion, nor were they qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles.

During the years ended December 31, 2001 and 2000 and through the date hereof, there were no disagreements with AA on any matter of accounting principle or practice, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure which, if not resolved to AA's satisfaction, would have caused them to make reference to the subject matter of such disagreements in connection with their report on the Company's consolidated financial statements for such years; and there were no reportable events as defined in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K.

The Company provided Arthur Andersen with a copy of the foregoing disclosures. The response of AA stating their agreement with the foregoing disclosures was filed as an Exhibit on Form 8-K, which was filed on April 5, 2002.

During the years ended December 31, 2001 and 2000 and through the date hereof, the Company did not consult E&Y with respect to the application of accounting principles to a specified transaction, either completed or proposed, or the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the Company's consolidated financial statements, or any other matters or reportable events as set forth in Items 304(a)(2)(i) and (ii) of Regulation S-K.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S FEES

AUDIT FEES

Arthur Andersen LLP billed the Company an aggregate of $73,000 in fees for professional services rendered in connection with the audit of the Company's financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2001 and the reviews of the financial statements included in each of the Company's Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q during the year ended December 31, 2001.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION SYSTEMS DESIGN AND IMPLEMENTATION FEES

Arthur Andersen LLP did not provide any services related to financial information systems design and implementation during 2001.

ALL OTHER FEES

Arthur Andersen LLP billed the Company an aggregate of $4,150 in fees for other services rendered to the Company for the year ended December 31, 2001 primarily related to accounting and tax compliance and consulting, acquisitions and divestitures.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE "FOR" THE PROPOSAL TO RATIFY THE APPOINTMENT OF ERNST & YOUNG LLP AS INDEPENDENT PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS OF THE COMPANY FOR THE FISCAL YEAR ENDING DECEMBER 31, 2002

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The Compensation Committee is responsible for making all compensation decisions for the named executives including determining base salary and annual incentive compensation amounts and granting stock options and other stock-based compensation under the Company's Long-Term Incentive Plan (the "Incentive Plan").

OVERALL OBJECTIVES OF THE EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION PROGRAM

The purpose of the Company's compensation plan is to attract, retain and motivate key management employees. It is the philosophy of the Company to pay its executives at levels commensurate with both Company and individual performance. A primary consideration in developing the Company's executive compensation programs is to link the long-term financial interests of executives with those of the Company and its shareholders. The Compensation Committee reviews compensation for comparable organizations in order to establish the Company's total compensation program and determine awards under the Incentive Plan.

In 2001, the total compensation program for the Company's top executives, approved by the Company's Board of Directors, consisted of a base salary, bonus and stock option grants for each of such executives.

BASE SALARY PROGRAM

It is the Company's policy to establish salaries at a level approximating the average of the competitive levels in comparable organizations and to provide annual salary increases reflective of the executive's performance, level of responsibility and position with the Company. In 2001, W. Marvin Rush received a base salary of $702,800.

ANNUAL INCENTIVE

Each year, the Compensation Committee evaluates the performance of the Company as a whole, as well as the performance of each individual executive. Factors considered include revenue growth, net profitability and cost control. The Compensation Committee does not utilize formalized mathematical formulae, nor does it assign weightings to these factors. The Compensation Committee, in its sole discretion, determines the amount, if any, of incentive payments to each executive. The Compensation Committee believes that the Company's growth in revenue and profitability requires subjectivity on the part of the Committee when determining incentive payments. The Compensation Committee believes that specific formulae restrict flexibility. W. Marvin Rush received a $290,000 bonus from the Company for services performed on behalf of the Company during 2001.

LONG-TERM INCENTIVE PLAN

The Company adopted its Incentive Plan in 1996 prior to its initial public offering, and the shareholders of the Company approved the Incentive Plan at the 1998 Annual Meeting of Shareholders. The Incentive Plan permits the Company to make grants of stock options, restricted stock, performance shares and other awards to employees as part of the Company's overall incentive compensation program. The Incentive Plan is intended to attract, retain and motivate key management personnel and to align the interest of the executives with those of shareholders. The overall long-term incentive grant levels are established by reviewing the number of shares reserved for such plans by comparable organizations. Individual long-term incentive grants are based on the employee's position in the Company and responsibility level. In 2001, W. Marvin Rush was granted an option for 39,500 shares under the Incentive Plan.

SECTION 162(M)

Section 162(m) of the Code currently imposes a $1 million limitation on the deductibility of certain compensation paid to each of the Company's five highest paid executives. Excluded from this limitation is compensation that is "performance based." For compensation to be performance based it must meet certain criteria, including being based on predetermined objective standards approved by shareholders. In general, the Company believes that compensation relating to options granted under the Incentive Plan should be excluded from the $1 million limitation calculation. Compensation relating to the Company's incentive compensation awards do not currently qualify for exclusion from the limitation, given the discretion that is provided to the Committee in establishing the performance goals for such awards. The Committee believes that maintaining the discretion to evaluate the performance of the Company's management is an important part of its responsibilities and inures to the benefit of the Company's shareholders. The Committee, however, intends to take into account the potential application of Section 162(m) with respect to incentive compensation awards and other compensation decisions made by it in the future.

CONCLUSION

The Compensation Committee believes these executive compensation policies serve the interests of the shareholders and the Company effectively. The Committee believes that the various pay vehicles offered are appropriately balanced to provide increased motivation for executives to contribute to the Company's overall future successes, thereby enhancing the value of the Company for the shareholders' benefit.

AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in any of the Company's filings under the Securities Act of 1933 or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, the following report of the Audit Committee shall not be incorporated by reference into any such filings and shall not otherwise be deemed filed under such acts.

The Audit Committee has:

- o Reviewed and discussed the audited financial statements with management.
- o Discussed with the independent auditors the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61.
- o Received the written disclosures and the letter from the independent auditors required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1.
- o Considered whether the provision of non-audit services is compatible with maintaining the auditors' independence.
- o Discussed with the independent auditors the auditors' independence.
- o Based on the review and discussions above, recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2001 for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

The Board of Directors has determined that the members of the Audit Committee are independent, in accordance with the standards established by the National Association of Securities Dealers. The Audit Committee has adopted a written charter, which was included as an exhibit to last year's proxy statement. The Audit Committee met three times in the last fiscal year.

For the year 2002, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board, and the Board has appointed, Ernst & Young LLP as the independent public accountants for the Company. Previously, Arthur Andersen LLP had been the independent public accountants for the Company. This decision to change independent public accountants was not the result of dissatisfaction with Arthur Andersen LLP, but reflected the Audit Committee's view that changing independent public accountants was in the Company's best interest given recent events involving other companies and the resulting uncertainty involving Arthur Andersen LLP. This decision was made following interviews with several accounting firms. The Board of Directors' appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as the Company's independent public accountants for the year 2002 is being submitted to the Company's shareholders for ratification.

The Audit Committee will continue to examine the provision of non-audit services by its auditors, and will recommend a separation of functions where it believes such separation is appropriate. In doing so, the Audit Committee will consider the views of the Company's management as to a particular firm's suitability for the particular task, cost, knowledge of the Company's operations, other relationships with the Company, and such other factors and qualifications as the Company's management may deem appropriate.

"ARTICLE FOUR

The total number of shares of all classes of stock which the corporation shall be authorized to issue is 51,000,000 shares, divided into the following: (i) 1,000,000 shares of preferred stock, of the par value $.01 per share ("Preferred Stock"), (ii) 40,000,000 shares of Class A Common Stock, of the par value $.01 per share ("Class A Common Stock") and (iii) 10,000,000 shares of Class B Common Stock, of the par value $.01 per share ("Class B Common Stock").

At the effective time of this amendment, (i) each three shares of existing Common Stock, $.01 par value per share, issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time shall automatically be changed and converted, without any action on the part of the holder thereof, into two shares of Common Stock and, in lieu of fractional interests in shares of Common Stock of the corporation, each holder whose aggregate holdings of shares of existing Common Stock prior to the effective time of this amendment amounted to a number not evenly divisible by three, shall be entitled to receive for such fractional interest, and at the effective time of this amendment any such fractional interest in shares of existing Common Stock of the corporation shall be converted into the right to receive, upon the surrender of stock certificates formerly representing shares of existing Common Stock of the corporation, an amount in cash equal to the average closing bid and asked prices per share for the shares of existing Common Stock on the Nasdaq National Market ("Nasdaq"), as reported by Nasdaq, on the date on which this amendment becomes effective, and (ii) each share of existing Common Stock, $.01 par value per share, issued and outstanding (after giving effect to the foregoing reverse stock split) shall automatically be reclassified and changed, without any action on the part of the holder thereof, into one share of Class B Common Stock.

A description of the respective classes of stock and a statement of the designations, preferences, limitations and relative rights of such classes of stock and the limitations on or denial of the voting rights of the shares of such classes of stock are as follows:

A.
PROVISIONS APPLICABLE TO PREFERRED STOCK

Preferred Stock may be issued from time to time in one or more series and in such amounts as may be fixed and determined herein or by the board of directors. The designations, preferences, limitations and relative rights, including voting rights, of each series of Preferred Stock shall be such as are fixed by the board of directors, and stated and expressed in a resolution or resolutions adopted by the board of directors providing for the establishment of any such series of Preferred Stock. The board of directors is hereby expressly authorized to establish any series of unissued shares of Preferred Stock by fixing and determining the designations, preferences, limitations and relative rights, including voting rights, of the shares of any series so established, within the limitations set forth in Article 2.13 of the Texas Business Corporation Act and herein, and to increase or decrease the number of shares within each such series; provided, however, that the board of directors may not decrease the number of shares within a series below the number of shares within such series that is then issued.

Except in respect of the particulars fixed by the board of directors for series established by the board of directors as permitted hereby, all shares of Preferred Stock shall be of equal rank and shall be identical. All shares of any one series of Preferred Stock so designated by the board of directors shall be alike in every particular, except that shares of any one series issued at different times may differ as to the dates from which dividends thereon shall be cumulative.

B.
PROVISIONS APPLICABLE TO CLASS A AND CLASS B COMMON STOCK

1. JUNIOR STOCK. Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock are junior to each series of Preferred Stock and are subject to all of the rights, privileges and preferences and priorities of Preferred Stock as herein set forth.

2. DIVIDENDS. Subject to all rights of each series of Preferred Stock, dividends may be paid on Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock as and when declared by the board of directors of the corporation out of any funds of the corporation legally available for the payment thereof. The holders of record of Class A Common Stock and the holders of record of Class B Common Stock shall have equal rights and rank per share with respect to any and all dividends and distributions declared on the common stock of the corporation, and no dividend or distribution shall be declared or made with respect to either Class A Common Stock or Class B Common Stock unless that dividend or distribution is declared and made with respect to both such classes; except that a dividend or distribution upon Class A Common Stock which will be paid in shares of common stock of the corporation shall be declared and made only in shares of Class A Common Stock and a dividend or distribution upon Class B Common Stock which will be paid in shares of common stock of the Corporation shall be declared and made only in shares of Class B Common Stock, and if a dividend or distribution is so declared and paid in shares of one class of common stock to the holder of each share of that class, a per-share dividend or distribution in an equal number of shares of the other class of common stock shall be concurrently declared and paid to the holder of each share of such other class, so that the number of shares of Class A Common Stock paid as a dividend or distribution on a share of Class A Common Stock shall be equal to the number of shares of Class B Common Stock paid as a dividend or distribution on a share of Class B Common Stock.

3. LIQUIDATION PREFERENCE. Subject to all of the rights, privileges and preferences and priorities of each series of Preferred Stock, after payment shall have been made in full to the holders of each series of Preferred Stock in the event of any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the corporation, to the extent of the liquidation preferences of such classes of stock, the remaining assets and funds of the corporation shall be distributed ratably to the holders of Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock according to their respective shares. Each share of Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock shall rank equally with respect to any distribution to be received by holders of common stock upon or with respect to liquidation, dissolution or winding up.

C.
PROVISIONS APPLICABLE TO CLASS A COMMON STOCK

1. VOTING. Subject to all of the rights, privileges and preferences and priorities of each series of Preferred Stock, (i) the holders of Class A Common Stock are entitled to one-twentieth (1/20th) of one vote per share on all questions presented to the shareholders. In all elections of directors of the corporation, each holder of Class A Common Stock shall have the right to vote in person or by proxy one-twentieth (1/20th) of one vote for each share of Class A Common Stock held by such holder for as many persons as there are directors to be elected.

Any provision of the Articles of Incorporation or By-Laws of the corporation requiring the affirmative vote of a specified percentage of shares of the corporation shall be read to give effect to the lesser voting rights of the holders of Class A Common Stock as described above; specifically, a provision that the affirmative vote of a specified percentage of the shares of the corporation is required shall require the affirmative vote of the holders of that percentage of the aggregate voting power of the corporation.

2. CONVERTIBILITY. The Class A Common Stock is not convertible into shares of Class B Common Stock.

PROVISIONS APPLICABLE TO CLASS B COMMON STOCK

1. VOTING. The holders of Class B Common Stock are entitled to one vote per share on all questions presented to the shareholders. In all elections of directors of the corporation, each holder of Class B Common Stock shall have the right to vote in person or by proxy the number of shares of Class B Common Stock held by such holder for as many persons as there are directors to be elected.

2. CONVERTIBILITY. The holders of Class B Common Stock shall have the right, at their option, to convert such shares into shares of Class A Common Stock at any time after the issuance thereof, on a share-per-share basis. In order to convert shares of Class B Common Stock into shares of Class A Common Stock, the holder thereof shall surrender at the office of the corporation or any transfer agent for the Class B Common Stock the certificate or certificates therefor, duly endorsed to the corporation or in blank, and give written notice at such office that he elects to convert such shares of Class B Common Stock which shall be deemed to have been converted as of the date (hereinafter called the "Class A Conversion Date") of the surrender of such shares for conversion as provided above, and the person or persons entitled to receive the shares of Class A Common Stock issuable upon such conversion shall be treated for all purposes as the record holder or holders of such Class A Common Stock on such date. As soon as practicable on or after the Class A Conversion Date, the corporation or any transfer agent for the Class B Common Stock will deliver at such office a certificate or certificates for the number of shares of Class A Common Stock issuable on such conversion.

The issuance of certificates for shares of Class A Common Stock issuable upon the conversion of shares of Class B Common Stock shall be made without charge to the converting holder; provided, however, that if any certificate is to be issued in a name other than that of the record holder of the shares being converted, the Company shall not be required to issue or deliver any such certificate unless and until the person requesting the issuance thereof shall have paid to the Company the amount of any tax that may be payable with respect to any transfer involved in the issuance and delivery of such certificate or has established to the satisfaction of the Company that such tax has been paid.

E.
PROVISIONS APPLICABLE TO PREFERRED
STOCK, CLASS A COMMON STOCK AND CLASS B COMMON STOCK

1. PREEMPTIVE RIGHTS. Ownership of shares of any class of the capital stock of the corporation shall not entitle the holders thereof to any preemptive right to subscribe for or purchase or have offered to them for subscription or purchase any additional shares of capital stock of any class of the corporation or any securities convertible into any class of capital stock of the corporation, however acquired, issued or sold by the corporation, it being the purpose and intent hereof that the board of directors shall have full right, power and authority to offer for subscription or sell or to make any disposal of any or all unissued shares of the capital stock of the corporation or any securities convertible into stock or any or all shares of stock or convertible securities issued and thereafter acquired by the corporation, for such consideration, not less than the par value thereof, or, in the case of any class of stock without par value, the stated value thereof, in money, property or labor, as the board of directors shall determine.

2. CUMULATIVE VOTING. No shareholder of the corporation shall have the right of cumulative voting at any election of directors or upon any other matter.

3. AUTHORITY TO PURCHASE OWN SHARES. The corporation shall have the authority to purchase, directly or indirectly, its own shares to the extent of the aggregate of unrestricted capital surplus available therefor."
